Numb. 7078.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, June 27. 1724.

Stockholm, June 14.

'WE do not hear yet how far M. Bibikoff, the new Ruſſian Miniſter, 'is advanced in his Negociations 'about Wierolax in Finland, which 'is a Matter of the higheſt Conſequence to Sweden. The King has ſent poſitive Orders to Carelſcroon, that the Fleet which lies there ready for ſailing, ſhall for the preſent take in no more Seamen than what are abſolutely neceſſary for doing Duty; and Admiral Taube received at the ſame time Orders to repair to Stockholm, where he will receive new Inſtructions for what he is to do hereafter. M. Beſtucheff, the Ruſſian Reſident, makes great Preparations for a Feaſt, on Occaſion of the Empreſs's Coronation.

Dantzick, June 17. The laſt Letters from Moſcow and Petersbourg adviſe, that the Czar has reſolved to marry the Princeſs his eldeſt Daughter to the Duke of Holſtein Gottorp, and the youngeſt to the Prince of Heſſen-Hombourg, and that the Nuptials of both will be celebrated as ſoon as their Czarian Majeſties come back again to Petersbourg. There goes a Report that the ſaid Duke of Holſtein will make his Reſidence at Riga, and that he will be declared Governour General of all the Provinces taken from the Crown of Sweden: Accordingly, the Letters from Riga confirm, that they are actually buſy there in fitting up and furniſhing the Ducal Palace, as likewiſe that at Dunemunde. The Maſters of the Ships which come daily in here from the Ruſſian Ports, report that the Ruſſian Fleet, with the Land Forces on board, waited only for the Czar's Order to put to Sea, which makes us apprehend a Viſit from them; and thoſe of the Duke of Mecklembourg's Court do ſtill flatter themſelves with Hopes that that Fleet will redreſs the Affairs of the Duke their Maſter. The Letters from Warſaw confirm the former Advices, that the King of Poland and the well-affected Senators omit nothing to unite the Minds of thoſe who are to aſſiſt at the next General Dyet, in order to bring it to a good Iſſue. The King has ſent Orders to all the Palatinates to ſearch diligently for certain Emiſſaries of Staniſlaus Lezinski, who having kept themſelves for ſome time incognito and under borrowed Names at Breſlau, went by Stealth into Poland. The Advices from Kiow and Leopold make no more mention of the Motions of the Tartars, ſince moſt of the Hords that were along the Nieſter are marched towards Bender and the River Pruth. But the Ruſſian Body of 16000 Men continues ſtill incamped near Kiow.

Hambourg, June 23. 'M. Hohenmuhl, the 'King of Denmark's Reſident here, has by expreſs 'Orders of his Court diſtributed amongſt all the 'Foreign Miniſters and other Perſons of Diſtinction, printed Copies of a Book Intituled, The true 'State of the conteſted Affair relating to the Succeſſion 'to the Dutchy of Holſtein-Ploen; wherein the 'Rights and Pretenſions the young Prince of Carlſtein, and now Duke of Norburg, has to the ſaid 'Dutchy, are ſet forth in ſuch a clear Light, that 'hardly any ſolid Objection can be made againſt 'it by the contrary Party. Yeſterday paſſed 'through this City for Aix la Chapelle, M. Reichau, 'one of the Gentlemen of the King of Denmark's 'Bedchamber, carrying to his Majeſty the joyful 'News of the Crown Princeſs's happy Delivery of 'a young Princeſs. Our Advices from Moſcow 'and Petersbourg about the Perſian Affairs vary as 'much as ever; ſeeing ſome of them tell us poſitively, that the Treaty concluded for ſix Years 'between the Czar and the Porte was actually 'printing at Petersbourg, in order to be publiſhed; whereas other Letters ſay, that the Affairs 'in Perſia had not a good Aſpect of late, ſince Miriweys's Forces, who is underhand aſſiſted by the 'Porte, has given the Ruſſians a ſmart Blow by 'cutting off their Communication between Andreoff and Derbent, ſo that the former Place is 'looked upon as good as loſt for want of Proviſions. 'We are not a little ſurprized that neither the 'Czar's nor the Duke of Holſtein's Miniſters here 'had any Letters from Moſcow by Yeſterday's 'Poſt; which makes us believe that what has been 'ſaid hitherto about the Czar's Declaration of the 'Duke of Holſtein's Marriage, it is not ſo ſure as 'the Holſtein Miniſters have publiſhed.

Hambourg, June 27. 'By Letters from Aix la 'Chapelle we are informed, that their Daniſh Majeſties left off drinking the Waters on the 25th 'Inſtant, and that two Days after the whole Court 'was to ſet out from thence on its Return to Oldenbourg, by the Way of Weſel, ſo that their 'Journey to Brabant and Holland is quite laid aſide. Their Majeſties intend to be again at Gluckſtadt by the 12th of July, and to tarry there for 'a Week. M. Bottiger, the Ruſſian Reſident here, 'received Orders Yeſterday from the Admiralty at 'Petersbourg, to give Notice to the Publick, that 'his Ruſſian Majeſty has reſolved, for the Benefit 'of Trade, to ſet up two Packet-Boats, which 'are to go from Cronſtad to Lubeck, and again 'from Lubeck to Petersbourg and Cronſtad, paſſing 'by Dagerod; ſo that any Paſſenger with Goods of 'an Hundred Weight may make that Voyage commodiouſly for three Ducats in Specie; but he 'muſt provide his Victuals himſelf, for nothing 'elſe but Firing and Water will be allowed him; 'and in caſe a Paſſenger carries above an Hundred 'Weight in Goods along with him, then he is to 'pay the Freight for the Overplus according to the 'Regulations publiſhed for that Purpoſe. Theſe 'two Packet-Boats will begin the latter End of this 'Month to ſail from Lubeck, and continue till the 'Froſt comes in. This unexpected Reſolution 'gives Birth to divers Speculations amongſt thoſe 'who underſtand Trade; many being of Opinion, 'that ſeveral important Deſigns lie concealed under 'it, by reaſon theſe Packet-Boats are built after a 'very curious Manner, and that they will outſail 'any other Ships; which makes People believe, 'that the Czar intends to ſet up at Lubeck, or its 'Neighbourhood, a Staple for certain East India 'Goods, in order to vend them in Germany, or other European Countries to the great Prejudice of other trading Nations. The said Ruſſian Minister has likewiſe received Orders to make a great Entertainment on the 10th of July, being the Feſtival of St. Peter and St. Paul, for all the Foreign Miniſters here. 'Tis adviſed from Roſtock, that the Vice-Chancellour of the Empire has aſſured their Syndic at Vienna, that his Imperial Majeſty will take Care that the Privileges of that City ſhall be preſerved and maintained againſt any Power whatſoever.

'other

Plymouth, June 23. Yeſterday came in the Robert and Suſanna from Dover, for London; Union from Oporto for London; Santa Maria from Bilboa for London; and His Majeſty's Ships Sheerneſs, Leoſtoff and Port-Mahon, from the Eaſtward.

Dartmouth, June 23. Yeſterday came in the Elizabeth, Mary and Elizabeth, and Francis and Mary, from London, for this Place.

Drawers,	Strip'd Ticken Breeches;

according the preſent Patterns, at the cheapeſt Rates, to paid for what ſhall be iſſued as the Ships ſhall be paid, and to be ſubject to the Rules eſtabliſhed for vending Cloths on board His Majeſty's Ships. Theſe are to give Notice thereof, that ſuch Perſons as incline to undertake the ſaid Service, may in the mean time come and view the Patterns, and inform themſelves of the ſaid Rules, in order to their treating with us accordingly.

FIRE MACHINES.

Whereas the diſmal Conſequences the unhappy Sufferers have been lately reduced to at Briſtol, St. Albans, and within theſe few Days paſt at Wooburn, had certainly been prevented, had Mr. Godfrey's new MACHINES to extinguiſh Fires by Exploſion and Suffocation, been at Hand and made uſe of, at the breaking out of thoſe fatal Conflagrations: This is therefore to give Notice to the Publick, that the ſaid Machines (which if thrown into a Fire at the firſt breaking out, or appearance thereof, will inevitably prevent its ſpreading) are to be had at Mr. Bridges's, a Joyner, living over-againſt Salisbury-ſtreet in the Strand, where every Buyer will be preſented with a Book, containing the Deſcription thereof, and the Manner how to uſe them.

Supposed to be loſt between the Hours of Nine and Ten of the Clock on Friday Night the 12th Inſtant, a Gold George with a Blue Ribbon, between Arlington-Street and St. James's Houſe. Whoever brings it to Mr. Gibſon's, a Jeweller, in Bow-ſtreet, Covent-Garden, ſhall have Five Guineas Reward, (which is more than the Value of the Gold) and no Queſtions aſked.

Whereas a Brilliant Diamond Ring with ſeveral Diamonds, was offered to be ſold on Thurſday the 25th Inſtant: If any Perſon has loſt any ſuch Ring of late, and can deſcribe the Make and Number of Stones, may be informed of the ſame at the Black-Moor's-Head in Cheapſide, a Goldſmith's, paying all Charges that ſhall attend the ſame Information.

Whereas it was formerly advertiſed, that the Baronnie of Ruthy, and Manſion-Houſe thereof, holding Taxward of the Crown; the Barronies of Garden, Lands of Craigineall and Baglillie, with the Pertinents, holding Blanch of the Crown, pertaining to David Lord Balgonie; as alſo the Baronnie of Weſtfield, holding Blanch of the Crown, pertaining to David Earl of Leven, all lying within the Shiredom of Fife, were to have been expoſed to a voluntary Roup and Sale at Edinburgh upon the 11th of June inſtant, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, in the Houſe of Mrs. Dun, Vintner; and the Judges in the ſame Roup having, purſuant to the ſaid Advertiſement, met at the ſaid Day and Place, and ſeveral Perſons who deſigned to purchaſe having deſired the Judges to adjourn the ſaid Roup for ſome time, the Judges, out of Regard to the concern of all Parties, accordingly adjourn the Roup and Sale of the ſaid Lands to Tueſday the 4th of Auguſt, at 2 a Clock in the Afternoon, at the ſaid Houſe of Mrs. Dun, being then fully reſolved to proceed to the Sale without further Delay. The Progreſs of the Rights of the ſaid Lands, Rentals, and Conditions of Sale, are to be ſeen in the Hands of John Ruſſel, Writer to the Signet, at his Writing Chamber on the South Side of the Street, oppoſite to the Croſs-Well.
